The meeting notice was posted this morning:
http://www.epa.gov/region6/6sf/texas/san_jacinto/

As for the URL, we can utilize a "Tiny URL" service in the future. This service shortens the URL which would show on the public notice. Going from a .gov site to a .com site normally requires a disclaimer -- you are leaving an EPA site... While the .com URL goes directly to an EPA site, we have no control over any future redirect or information added.

Donn and Snehal, I received the post card, thanks. I am looking forward to the meeting. I have a quick question about the web sites that are listed. I see three complicated EPA websites listed but I don't see <http://www.sanjacintowastepits.com/> listed. We've offered this link for a long time as an easy link that people can remember, but it has never been embraced by EPA. Right now, the sanjacintowastepits.com site automatically forwards to <http://cfpub.epa.gov/supercpad/cursites/csitinfo.cfm?id=0606611> (which is an EPA San Jacinto River Waste Pits Superfund site, but not one of the three you have listed on the postcard).

Will EPA ever be interested in utilizing the <http://www.sanjacintowastepits.com/> link? It is infinitely easier to remember than the three sites that are listed on the post card. Those sites are even hard to type in, let alone remember. If not, I think we will stop re-directing it to an EPA website and just make our own site. Please let me know your thoughts. It's no problem, either way. Thanks.
